Eye witnesses inside the billiard hall say that Roumeliotis was engaged in playing a game of pool when Getis entered the room. Neither man spoke, and Roumeliotis paid no attention to Getis, after the latter first entered the room and stepped close to the pool table. As Roumeliotis bent over the pool table for the purpose of making a shot, Getis, it is said, stepped up behing him and, pressing the gan into the left side of the small of his back, firea the fatal shot. Without a word, Roumeliotis straightened up and fell to the floor.
